The Lord Strathcona Trust Fund Medal

The Lord Strathcona Trust Fund Medal, most commonly referred to as the Lord Strathcona Medal, is the highest award which can be bestowed upon a cadet in recognition of exemplary performance in physical and military training.

Lord Strathcona's objectives in establishing his endowment were to:

a. encourage the improvement of the physical and intellectual capabilities of cadets;

b. foster patriotism in cadets through the acquisition of a good knowledge of military matters.

The recipient must have a complete knowledge of the activities of the cadet movement and must meet the following requirements:

a. have a high level of physical fitness;

b. have qualified to a training level of at least Level 3 (completed level 3)

c. have met all requirements of their corps' mandatory training program of the scheduled training parades in the year

d. attendance at optional training considered during the selection process

e. have completed three years as a cadet,

f. be regarded by peers and supervisors as exemplifying the model cadet

To apply for the Lord Strathcona Trust Fund Medal you must:

- Write a narrative as to your qualifications for the Medal
- Create a resume
- 1 letters of reference preferred (Cannot be a member of the Squadron).
